To Whom It May Concern,

Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: KOGI JAMLICK-TRAINER WITH BBS-The Big Brother Society

Jamlick has been involved in the training of our prefects in September 2013 and September 2014, at Makini School and at Camp Malta respectively. He is an expert in sharing knowledge in areas of communication skills, leadership skills, self awareness, team work/team building and time management.

He delivers the lessons in a simple, clear and memorable manner. He exudes confidence, engages the audience and answers questions- a clear indication that he invests in research and reads widely. He has excellent presentation and communication skills. Also, he relates well with the trainees by sharing his real life personal experiences as a youth leader- in high school and while at the university. In addition, he tactfully injects doses of humour and ice-breaks during his training, attracting the attention of the participants and keeping them alert and engaged.

As a young leader who walks the talk, Jamlick is an inspiration, role model and a mentor to many young people. I highly recommend him as a skilled trainer who has come of age.

Regards,

Bi Manyengo
