To Whom It May Concern,

Dear Sir/Madam,

RECOMMENDATION: JAMLICK KOGI

Jamlick is passionate about mentorship, team building and training. He spices up his sessions with ice breaks that engage audience and give practical real life insights. His sessions are on point and coupled with his personal experiences and current issues. He is an avid reader and researches intensively for all his presentations in order to share relevant and timely information.

He is an expert in image and branding, time management, leadership skills and communication skills. Also, he is good at event organization and relationship management with BBS clients.

As the chairperson of BBS-The Big Brother Society, Jamlick has shown admirable leadership, gaining recognition as the BBS person of the year in 2013. He is a team player, committed and passionate gentleman and takes initiative. He motivates members and encourages creativity, giving all members a chance to grow and realize their potential.

I recommend him as a great motivational speaker, mentor and trainer.

Regards,

Agnes Karonji

Big Brother Society-Secretary General
